CADORNA TO STRIKE BACK AIDED BY ALLIED TROOPS; ITALIAN KING AT THE FRONT

Dispatches From Firing Lines Give First Details of Great Blow Struck by Mackensen and the Heroic Defense by Italians.

ROME, Nov. 2.-Austro-German patrols have advanced to the banks of the Tagliamento River, along which the Italians are making a stand. The War Office announces that these patrol were repulsed by machine gun fire.

ITALIAN HEADQUARTERS IN NORTHERN ITALY Thursday, Nov. 1.-Italian and allied troops are preparing for a counter-offensive. A great battle based on the line of the Tay liamento River is forecast.

King Victor Emmanuel and Premier Orlando are at the front. A despatch from London says French and British troops are rushing across Pledmont and Lombardy to take their places in the Italian lines with siege and field guns and immense supplies of war munitions. It is estimated that more than 20,000 of them, mostly heavy artillerymen, will be in the Italian defense positions before the end of next week.]

The main body of the Italian Army is intact, after having thwarted the Austro-German plan of encompassing the Third Army on the Carso Germans shelled the back areas and hoping thereby to cut off the flower of the forces in this region and render the Venetian plains defenseless.

Italian Garrison Held Out Three Days: Fed From Airplanes.

LONTON, Nov. 2 -- One lone Italian post on Monte Nero, cut off by von Mackensen's armies, held out three days.

During this interval Italian viators, circling at risk of their lives in the hati of German artillery ver the positions, dropped bread and other food to the courageous garrison.

The incident was vouched for in authentic despatches received because
